Nebraska State Cornhusking Waiver: In making application to participate in the Nebraska State Hand Cornhusking Contest, contestants and other participants should understand that all reasonable efforts are being taken to protect contestants, officials, and spectators from harm. Nevertheless, in keeping with the National Hand Cornhusking Rules Committee requirements, this waiver must be properly signed. The committee also expects each contestant to have read and fully familiarized themselves with the National Rules. In consideration of the acceptance of entry, I hereby for myself, my heirs, executors, and administrators, waive and release any and all rights and claims for damages I may have against any and all other entrants, and/or sponsors, co-sponsors, their committees, sub-committee members, agents and representatives, the farm operator, the farm owner, contest officials, and officers and directors of the Hall County Museum DBA Stuhr Museum and assign for any and all injuries, if any, to me in the Nebraska State Hand Cornhusking Contest.
